

Flight crews are already under enough pressure due to security concerns, aging fleets, discourteous passengers and bankrupt carriers. Our responsibility is safety first and we do not need another issue that compromises our only reason for being onboard. Please ban the use of cell phones on flights. Most aircraft already have inflight phones that passengers can use.